

Anatomical Scavenger Hunt

What region of the body is medial and posterior to the thoracic?

What region is the most distal part of the arm? The leg?

Which regions lie most medial on the anterior side of the body? The posterior?

What is the most superior portion of the cephalic region?

What region is medial from the scapular region but lateral from the vertebral?

Which region appears to be the most medial while being equally superior and inferior?

What organ occupies a region within both the sternal and thoracic cavity and is most internal?

What regions of the body are most proximal on the arm? The leg?

What region is posterior to the Pelvic region that is most medial?

What are the different regions associated with the foot? Which is most inferior?

Which areas of the leg are equally proximal and distal to the body?